NEWS RELEASE

April 20, 2009 / 6:00 AM / EDMONTON (Canada NewsWire via COMTEX News Network)

UNITED SELECTED AS SERVICE PROVIDER OF CHOICE AS PART OF CONSORTIUM TO PROVIDE SECURITY SERVICES FOR THE VANCOUVER 2010 OLYMPIC AND PARALYMPIC WINTER GAMES

S. Jorstad, Chairman, President and Chief Executive Officer of United Protection Security Group Inc. (TSX-V:UZZ) ("UPSG" or the "Company"), a Canadian based security services company is pleased to announce that the Company is part of the Contemporary Security Canada ("CSC") consortium that has been awarded the contract by Public Works and Government Services Canada and the Royal Canadian Mounted Police to provide certain security services for the upcoming Vancouver 2010 Winter Games in Vancouver and Whistler, British Columbia.

The Contemporary Security Canada consortium is an integrated team of local and international experts and includes: Contemporary Security Canada Inc., a major event security company with past Olympic Games experience, Aeroguard Security Ltd., Canada's leading airport security screening company and United Protection Security Group Inc., one of Western Canada's fastest growing security firms.

"We are honored to be part of a consortium to support and service the security services requirements committed to providing quality customer service to Games visitors, while maintaining the RCMP's safety and security standards all times," noted Sig Jorstad. "We look forward to collaborating with our partners in the CSC in the upcoming months to prepare for this extremely exciting event in Canada."

UPSG anticipates this contract to have a non-recurring material impact on the Company's financial performance during the 2009 and 2010 financial years.
